

Rhenus in Italy: Fast, Flexible and Individual

In comparison with other EU countries, Italy still has plenty of ground to make up in the field of logistics. The significance of the sector may be continually increasing, but the proportion of small and tiny businesses, which cannot offer any comprehensive logistics services, is very large. Rhenus Logistics S.p.A., a one hundred percent subsidiary of the Rhenus Group, is very different and offers a broad portfolio of services, including numerous transport connections and complex logistics solutions.

Rhenus has eighteen business locations in various regions of the country. The company branches are located in Bari, Bolzano, Brescia, Catania, Civitanova Marche, Como, Florence, Genova, Milan, Modena, Naples, Padua, Parma, Pisa, Rome, Turin Vicenza and Verona.

All the locations are linked to the Rhenus Group's European network via the central hub in Milan. Each branch has some particularity i.e. the office in Bolzano mainly manages traffic to Austria and Germany, especially via Munich. The office in Verona primarily organizes shipments from Italy to Russia and Eastern Europe. The office in Rome has a warehouse of 40.000 square meters.

Overall, Rhenus in Italy has more than 115,000 square meters of storage space available. The services that it provides cover the three main areas of business: international consignments, logistics and domestic traffic.

International Consignments

Rhenus in Italy provides the complete range of services for international consignments: groupage freight traffic, part and complete loads, a European network, air and sea freight, rail traffic, hazardous goods traffic, shipments of plant or special or heavy loads, warehousing, bonded warehouses and customs clearance.

Logistics

Rhenus assumes responsibility for all the processes involved in warehouse management for its customers. They include stock management, picking and value added services – for example, packing goods. Rhenus advises its customers individually about optimizing these processes and can even handle any outsourcing of customers' logistics, if this is what they so require.

Domestic Traffic

The Rhenus Group is an international corporation, which does not think in terms of national frontiers. But it does take special local features seriously: The members of staff at the business locations come from the region and they know the local people and their language.

A daily scheduled service links the Rhenus business locations in the country with the central hub in Milan in less than 24 hours. The company guarantees delivery times of 48 hours for other regions and 72 hours for Calabria, Basilicata and the islands.

About Rhenus

The Rhenus Group is one of the leading logistics specialists with global business operations and annual turnover amounting to EUR 5.4 billion. 33,500 employees work at 820 business sites and develop innovative solutions along the complete supply chain. Whether providing transport, warehousing, customs clearance or value-added services, the family business pools its operations in various business units where the needs of customers are the major focus at all times.
