Project Logistics

Rhenus offers worldwide handling for projects of unusual dimensions and oversized loads by sea, river, air, road and rail. Our transportation specialists analyze routes, loading options and schedules, as well as supervising the entire process.

Multimodal Transport /Short Sea Shipping

Rhenus Logistics offers its customers a multimodal transport service = Short Sea Shipping, based on the combination of sea, land and rail transport. We use the numerous synergies to transport full container loads (FCL) from and to Europe efficiently, cost-effectively and sustainably.

Specialist for islands traffics and customs destinations

Rhenus Logistics not only organizes shipping services from the most important cities on the Iberian Peninsula to the Canary Islands, but also to the Balearics, the Azores, Madeira, Ceuta, Melilla, Gibraltar, Andorra and Morocco. The company operates direct services to the Canary Islands and Balearics from Germany, Asia and Italy too.

The infrastructure in the Canary Islands and the daily interconnection with the inter-island transport network, allows Rhenus Logistics to offer daily coverage on all the islands of the Canary archipelago.

Rhenus Food Care provides specialized transport, distribution and logistics services for the food sector between the Spanish mainland and the Balearic and Canary Islands with optimal transit times for Groupage, Full Load and Express Transport. Cold storage warehouses are in Alicante, Barcelona, Fuerteventura, Gran Canaria, Lanzarote, Madrid, Palma de Mallorca, Seville and Tenerife, with cross-docking services.

Customs clearance and Foreign Trade

The customs department of Rhenus Logistics handles customs formalities with a team of highly qualified and experienced customs agents so that consignments can be transported easily and anywhere in the world.

Rhenus Logistics is certified AEO (Authorized Economic Operator).
