

Mission

We are ambitious to exceed our partners requirements offering them the highest quality solutions including additional value by unique, innovative logistics service.

Vision

- Creating and keeping up awareness regarding actual and foreseen needs of partners and customers using the best world class solutions.
- Realization of service on time in the reliable, flexible and simple manner in such way to try to exceed customers' requirements.
- Consistent creating of organization culture by building good Rhenus Logistics employee relationship and approach related to customer satisfaction achievement.

Quality, Environmental and OHS Policy

We assure for our customers professional service adequate to their needs. We can find suitable solution for each logistics project of our customer. Our storage surfaces, transport means and other resources are adequate to provided services characteristics.

Continuous improvement of our service quality, suitable storage and transportation conditions of goods, and our range of offered service development let us to create good image of our company with care of natural environment and work health & safety. We achieve it by:

- detailed analyse of our customers needs
- full engagement of all employees to perform Company strategy including risks and opportunities
- having educated and well experienced staff who continuously improve their qualifications
- pursuing to fulfil customer requirements at the highest level including individual expectations
- having modern technical equipment making possible to apply the newest logistics solutions, with approach to improving the quality of environmental effects of operations,
- continuous processes improvement and processes efficiency monitoring
- activity with abide the law regulations, norms and other rules regarding natural environmental protection
- activity aimed to prevent pollution generate and reduce negative influence on nature
- increasing environmental awareness employees with wage to spread and apply rules regarding natural environmental protection and work health & safety with particular reflect on safety rules ensure from our employees and suppliers.

Our objectives achieve is supported by introducing, maintenance and continuous improvement of Quality Management System according to ISO 9001 standard, Environmental Management System according to ISO 14001 standard, spread safe execution of duties.

Our Quality, Environmental and OHS Policy is known, understood and followed by each employee.

Board od Members of Company undertakes to protect environment and to provide resources and funds for the implementation of this Policy and to maintain an integrated management system.

QMS/EMS Representative

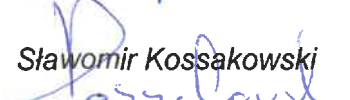

Wojciech Koronowicz

Board of Members:

Marcin Bartosz

Sławomir Kossakowski

Certyfikat Nr 399125 QM / UM